Description

Introducing the Boston Whaler 285 Conquest, a vessel that embodies Whaler's unsinkable legend and reputation for versatility, comfort, and durability. Whether you're planning active day cruises, serious saltwater fishing runs, or impromptu overnight stays, this boat is designed to handle it all with ease!

Every detail of the 285 Conquest is crafted for maximum comfort and usability. From enhanced helm visibility and spacious walkaround areas to plush seating, this boat ensures every journey is a pleasure! When not entertaining guests in the generous self-draining cockpit with transom door and fold-away rear lounge seat, you can head offshore and chase the big fish with confidence!

Packed with features for the avid angler, there's dual Fish Boxes located in the sole to port and starboard, equipped with pumps and drains. Perfect for storing your catch or keeping drinks cold. Wide Beam and Proud Chines provide a stable, confident stance whether trolling or bottom fishing at anchor!

450 HP is Ample power too, from the twin 225HP Mercury Verado (6 cyl) Outboards. Plus, paired with Whaler's renowned Unibond Construction system — a process that bonds hull and decks together with closed-cell structural foam, that became famous early in the brand's history, ensures Boston's unmatched strength and safety!

Below deck, enjoy the conveniences of a full galley with a microwave, refrigerator, and single-burner stove. A laminated cabinet with a Corian bench top houses these appliances. There's also comfortable sleeping for two, a cozy dinette table, and beautifully upholstered seating too!
