Description

This SeaRay 275 is brimming with features and offers a wide variety of options! Perfect for weekends away at Rotto, day trips up the Swan exploring the wineries, or heading out wide for a fishing adventure. The versatility of this boat is second to none! Plus, freshly washed, antifouled and fully serviced!

Her modern design, featuring a forward-facing Targa arch and sleek windscreens, enhances the sharp appeal of this beauty. The upholstery throughout has been replaced in 2023, adding to her allure and comfort!

Access the engine room with the touch of a switch to reveal an automated fire extinguishing system and a beautiful, powerful, and economical V8 Mercruiser 350 MAG MPI engine with a low 360 hours on the clock! Plus, complemented with a sterndrive, this setup offers peak performance, shallow water operation, and the ability to anchor on the beach.

Stepping onboard, you'll instantly notice the fantastic layout of the cockpit. The super comfortable seating arrangement caters to the entire crew. At the helm, you'll find ergonomically laid-out engine management gauges, a Navman Trackfish 6600, GME marine radio, stereo, adjustable steering helm for added comfort, and much more!

Stay snug and dry with the Bimini and clears, along with full aft camper covers extending over the cockpit—great for hot days or additional bedding. These covers also protect the boat from the elements year-round.

Below deck, through the lockable cabin door, you enter the plush saloon with carpet underfoot and a beautiful U-shaped forward lounge with dinette that can convert into a double bed. The galley features a microwave, stove, fridge, sink, and plenty of storage space. The private aft cabin is comfortable, while the forward lounge area with a TV provides entertainment all year round!

The self-contained and clean bathroom includes a shower, vanity, and toilet.
